Report of the Special Town Meeting Held April 11, 1911

A meeting of the legal voters of the Town of Hampton was held at the town hall in said town on Tuesday, the eleventh day of April, 1911, and was called to order by the moderator at fifteen minutes past two o'clock in the afternoon, who read the warrant calling said meeting and after discussion, the following Preamble and Resolution was adopted and substituted for Articles 1, 3 and 4 in the Warrant:

Whereas—There was addressed to the Selectmen of Hampton a petition requesting the issuance of a call for a special town meeting and inserting therein for action at said meeting subject matter of a nature to reflect unduly upon the official administration of the town's business by the Selectmen for the fiscal year ending February 15th, 1911, and whereas the special town meeting was called in pursuance of the request contained in the petition and is now being holden:

Now therefore, be it resolved that it is the sense of the meeting that the Selectmen have accounted for all monies received and all monies expended by them during the fiscal year ending February 15th, 1911, and that for their careful, faithful and conscientious discharge of their duties the past year, they are entitled to a vote of thanks and of confidence in their ability and honesty, and to that end it is ordered, that the petition asking for the call of the special town meeting be expunged from the records of the Town of Hampton.

Voted—That a committee of three be appointed, to be called the Committee on Appropriations, the Chairman of which shall be the Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, whose duties shall be to recommend the amounts to be raised by taxation for the year 1912, and report in time for printing in the town accounts. Abbott Norris and Thomas Leavitt were chosen as the other members of the above committee.

Voted—That the law be enforced in relation to the taxation of personal property.

Voted—To indefinitely postpone Articles 6, 7, 8 and 9 of the Warrant.

Voted—That Article 10th of the Warrant be left with the Selectmen.

Voted—That Article 11th of the Warrant be indefinitely postponed.

The following Resolution was adopted:

Resolved—That it is the opinion of this meeting that the Selectmen ought not to expend money in excess of the sum voted for any particular purpose, nor for any purpose other than that for what it has been appropriated, nor borrow money on notes of the town without first having authority to do so by a vote of the town.

Voted—That the resignation of Christopher S. Toppan as Selectman be not accepted.

Voted—That the matter of licensing vendors of pop corn, ice cream, etc., be left with the Selectmen.

The following amendment to the regulations for the digging of clams was passed:

"In the regulation passed at the last annual town meeting to regulate the digging of clams: Strike out the words 'more than one bushel' between the word 'family' and the word 'clams,' and strike out the words 'in any one calendar day' between the word 'clams' and the word 'from' and insert before the word 'resident' the words 'bona fide,' so that the regulation as amended will read:

"That no person, not a bona fide resident of Hampton shall dig, except for the consumption of himself or family, clams from the flats, shores, creeks or rivers situated within the boundaries of said town of Hampton and subject to State jurisdiction."

Voted—That an attested copy of the records of this meeting be printed in the Exeter News-Letter and Hamptons Union.

Voted—That the Selectmen be instructed to furnish settees for the voters at town meetings.

Voted—That the Selectmen cause to be printed the invoice used in assessing taxes the coming year in some newspaper.

Voted—That the meeting be dissolved.

Hampton, February 20, 1912

Your committee and the trustees congratulate themselves and the town on the present condition of the Academy and High School. The roll of attendance has increased. The percentage of attendance exceeds the former high average. The State Superintendent reports the average of attendance as above that of most other academies of the same class in the state. Apparatus and reference books have been added to. The reference library is now nearly up to the requirements of the State Superintendent. The entrance examination has been fully as difficult as that of last year. And the record of school work has been highly satisfactory. For the efficiency and high standing of the school we are indebted to the industry, faithfulness and ability of our self-sacrificing and underpaid teachers. To put the school fully where it should be we shall have to be more exacting in our entrance examinations. Our crying difficulty is lack of funds. We shall have again to apply to Hon. Edward Tuck for financial aid. And we shall have to ask the town for the usual appropriation, and have no doubt that it will be generously granted. The good work that the school is doing, and its high standard, and the credit it reflects on the town, and the service it is doing for the town merit it.

For the Committee,

J. A. ROSS, Chairman.

ROLL OF HONOR

Kingsley D. Church, Bernice E. Searles, Olga Wilkinson, Stephen Gilman.

The grammar school has maintained its high standard under the teaching of Miss Mary C. Pollard, assisted most efficiently by Miss Julia Locke.

The intermediate school for the two terms was taught by Miss Addie C. Marston and the pupils have made steady advancement.

Miss Josephine Joplin as teacher of the Center primary school has worked faithfully and efficiently and the scholars have shown much interest.

The East primary school was taught by Miss Irene J. Trefethen and made good progress.

The North primary school has the same faithful efficient teacher, Miss Etta C. Blake, who has taught so successfuly in that school for a number of years.

The West primary schocl under the teaching of Miss Dorothy Smart did good work. At the beginning of the school year as there were only four scholars the Board decided to close the school and transport the scholars.

Mr. Carl Akeley as supervisor of music has ably maintained the interest and enjoyment of the schools in that study.

At the school meeting in March the district voted to unite with two or more towns and form a supervisory district. The school districts of Stratham, Seabrook and Hampton Falls united with the Hampton district and elected Mr. Albert T. Lane as supervisory superintendent.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the School Board of Hampton, N. H.:

Gentlemen:—I hereby submit my first report as superintendent of the schools of your town.

Since last September it has been my endeavor to study as thoroughly as possible the condition of the local schools, their efficiency and educative power, the physical environment of the children, as the sanitation, the ventilation, and heating arrangements, the causes of waste, of loss, of retardation, of improper adjustment of the individual pupil to his school work and to the grade in which I found him. Effort has also been made to devise plans by which greater efficiency and less waste may be attained in the management and the operation of the schools.

In order to secure the highest grade of efficiency in its work, the schools must make the most effective use of the time and the material at their disposal. With this end in view teachers and superintendent have prepared programs of the daily routine of such scope and flexibility as to obtain for the pupils a larger amount of time for class-room work and likewise for self-activity at the desks. The most important step taken in the direction of eliminating loss and needless expenditure as well as of securing larger results has been the rearrangement of the grades of the grammar and intermediate schools, and the merging of the former East primary with the North and Centre primary schools.

By this change we have materially increased the time given to the individual pupil in the grammar school, and we have by a flexible program, given to the individual pupil in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades two-thirds of the teacher's time, whereas before he was receiving from one-third to one-half of that time. Another added advantage has been the equalization of the number of pupils attend- the several schools and the relief from overcrowding. Any close observer cannot fail to recognize the gain that has already resulted, and must in still larger measure result, from the move.

Some effort has been made to reduce the great loss due to poor attendance, and this most serious waste of the public money is considerable. The apathy of parents in this matter has often been responsible for wrecking the careers of boys and girls, who otherwise might have been encouraged by their attainment and the realization of some latent power to increase their personal efficiency to a degree adequate to insure success in life. Excuses rather than reasons are given for absences. Children often stay away from school from some impulse or convenience rather than necessity. It is not infrequent that, in the eyes of the parent, regularity and punctuality are "fads" of the teacher or the other school officials.

The compulsory school law covers the attendance of children between the ages of eight and fourteen, and makes it possible for any school district to increase the limits to from six to sixteen. Children between the ages of six and eight, if once entered in the schools, must attend regularly. The parent, however, if he so desires, in the absence of any regulation of the school district, may remove such child entirely from the school until he reaches the age of eight years. Undoubtedly, this year there have been infractions of these regulations. The parent owes to the state the education of his child at least in the common school branches, and this the state requires. Lack of punctuality is another waste of time school officials have to meet. Parents can assist the teacher materially in rectifying this abuse. Pupils who are dilatory from habit become shiftless, and as a result incompetent to perform the duties of good citizenship.

Some children have been found, who have been promoted too rapidly and are now attempting tasks for which they are not prepared. Great injury may be done the child, by hurrying him over work he does not fully grasp. Too much time has been spent on some subjects, too little on others. Steps are now in progress to more completely adjust our system to the demands of the state Program of Elementary Studies.

Perception charts and cards for use in arithmetic have been prepared by teachers of lower grades in accordance with the instructions of the superintendent. Practical mental drill in this subject has been emphasized. Greater stress is being laid upon mental and less upon pencil and paper work. Speed and accuracy each have their place in securing the desired result.

Reading and literature courses are in the process of making. The expressional side of reading is being gradually improved by memorizing of poetical selections, by action plays, story-telling and dramatization in the lower grades. The teachers are making some endeavor to combine the teaching of patriotism and that of ethics by the practice of a variety of methods. Our teaching of physiology is considerably hampered by the lack of a proper text-book on this important subject. Hygiene, first aid to the injured, the care of the health, sanitaton, ventilation, the formation of correct habits in early life, the effect of bacteria are now well-presented in the best text-books of the day. This defect should be remedied at as early a date as possible. As required by law, the study of civics has been given a definite place in our grammar school program.

A complete list of the books now in the possession of the town is being compiled. When completed, copies will be placed in the hands of members of the school board and the teachers. Some additions to our list of available Supplementary readers have been made this year. Gradually other texts can be added until we have enough to satisfy the requirements of the state course. Often a single copy of a text will suffice, if handled properly by the teacher.

Our town can gradually increase the efficiency and power of its school system. Parents and townsmen should know more of the actual conditions and the most urgent needs of its elementary schools. The schools are largely what the people make them. The home should supplement the work of the schoolroom, at least should harmonize with it. Often, false ideas of the value of the teacher's most devoted endeavors in the pupil's behalf arise from the lack of knowledge of present school programs and the wide scope of the work required.

The unfailing and sympathetic support of the members of the School Board, their endeavor to make effective plans put in operation, the conscientious and enthusiastic support of the teachers, the cordial and generous attitude of the parents and the public generally is appreciated most highly, and will be a source of inspiration for greater endeavor, and an augury of, it is hoped, larger results and of a higher grade of efficiency in our school system.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT T. LANE,

Superintendent of Schools

S. ALBERT SHAW } Auditors

Hampton, February 21, 1912

Number of volumes added by purchase, 140; number of volumes rebound, 46.

It is with pleasure that we acknowledge the receipt of the following volumes, which have been presented: By the Encyclopedia Club, The International Encyclopedia, 21 volumes; Lewis Perkins, 28 volumes; Miss Isabel Stuart, 15 volumes; Edgar J. Batchelder of Newburyport, Mass, 8 volumes; Miss Laura Norris, 2 volumes; Albert Pillsbury, 2 volumes; Sir Edwin Lawrence, 1 volume; Super. Pub. Documents, Washington, D. C., 1 volume; Miss Elizabeth Taylor, 1 volume; Sumner Claflin, 1 volume; Mrs. Ellen Blake, 1 volume; summer visitors at Elmwood Farm, 1 volume; State of New Hampshire, 12 volumes; a friend, 1 volume; a friend, 1 volume. Also by Rev. J. A Ross, 6 unbound volumes of the North American Review.

An excellent pen and ink sketch of the Library building by Earl Morehouse was presented by him.

Also by Mrs. Mary Getchell, a fine large waste basket for the librarian's room.

Number of volumes added by purchase, 140; by gift, 66, making a total of 206; number of volumes catalogued, 3835.

Number of volumes issued for year ending Feb. 15, 1912. 8462, a gain of 2413 over the circulation of 1910.

Among the more valuable works added to the library the past year may be mentioned the following:

Stoddard's Art Pictures, 2 volumes, presented by Miss Laura Norris; A Universal History, 8 volumes, presented by Edgar Batchelder; A New Reference Atlas of the World, Webster's International Dictionary, and the International Encyclopedia, 21 volumes, the latter especially, being a most welcome addition.

The Reading Room has been well patronized, 1987 persons having availed themselves of its privileges during the year.

The number of visitors was usually much larger on Wednesday and Saturday than on other evenings of the week, but the evenings when no one was present were very few.

The list of magazines and papers to be found on the tables with the exception of one or two minor changes is still continued as at the first.
